- 16d. There are two different compensation arrangements that may provide protection for retail investors trading on Chi-X: NGF Arrangements or Division 3 Arrangements. This is because on 26 October 2020, Chi-X became a member of the SEGC, which operates the National Guarantee Fund (NGF).

When do the NGF Arrangements apply?

From 26 October 2020, the National Guarantee Fund (NGF) may apply in the circumstances set out in Division 4 of Part 7.5 of the Corporations Act 2001 and Corporations Regulations 2001. Transitional arrangements apply and these are set out on the SEGC's website at www.segc.com.au. When do the Division 3 Compensation Arrangements apply?

Where a retail investor suffers a loss in respect of conduct, a transaction or insolvency that occurred before 26 October 2020, that loss may be covered by the Division 3 compensation arrangements. Section 11 of the Chi-X Operating Rules outlines the Division 3 compensation arrangements, including the cessation of the arrangements on 25 October 2027 and the requirement, while the arrangements are in place, to make a claim no later than six months after becoming aware of the loss to which the claim relates. Section 11 also outlines that the losses covered by Division 3 are those resulting from defalcation or fraudulent misuse of your money, property or authority by a Chi-X participant.

 - your use of a CommSec Platform or any Third Party Information in violation of these Terms and Conditions; or
 - any breach of your representations and warranties set forth in these Terms and Conditions.
18. Each indemnity in these Terms and Conditions is a continuing obligation, which is independent of and separate from your other obligations, and survives termination of these Terms and Conditions.

Severance

19. If any part of any of these Terms and Conditions is found to be void or unenforceable for unfairness or any other reason (for example, if a court or other tribunal or authority declares it so), the remaining parts of these Terms and Conditions will continue to apply as if the void or unenforceable part had never existed.

 - the Market Operators are entitled under the Market Operating Rules to require cancellation or amendment of a dealing or order;
 - if you or a signatory appears to be a Proscribed Person, then we may immediately refuse to process or complete any transaction or dealing of yours; suspend the provision of a product or service to you; refuse to allow or to facilitate any of your assets held by us to be used or dealt with; refuse to make any asset available to you or to any other proscribed person or entity; or terminate these arrangements with you. - 12c. You must not procure or assist another person or company to do an act prohibited by sub-clause 12b.

Account aggregation

13. If we permit you to aggregate your accounts with one client ID and password, you authorise anyone who has access to your account through aggregation to have full use of any of the accounts, including trading privileges. You also acknowledge that where the accounts are aggregated, the person who is authorised to have access to your account will be able to have access to your personal information on any accounts that have been aggregated.

Your instructions

14. We will only act within the parameters of your instructions in accordance with our Best Execution Policy.
15. If you are a body corporate, you acknowledge that we reserve the right at any time to request a guarantee from all or any one of your directors in such form as we may reasonably require relating to your obligations under these arrangements.
16. We are not obliged to accept any application or instruction to trade, nor are we obliged to provide you with reasons for refusing your application or instruction to trade. If we consider it is in our reasonable interest to do so, we may decline to act on your behalf in relation to any particular dealings, without explanation or advance notice. Additionally, we may decline to act on your behalf:
- where the original instruction is more than 20 business days old and is not reconfirmed at that time;
 - where the basis of quotation for the security has changed and the order has not been reconfirmed;
 - where the security has been subject to a trading halt and the order has not been reconfirmed;
 - where the Market Operator has purged the order from the Market Operator's trading platform;
 - where we believe the transaction would result in no change of beneficial ownership;
 - where we believe the transaction would have the effect, or is likely to have the effect, of creating a false or misleading appearance of active trading in any securities or with respect to the market for, or the price of, any securities; or
 - where we believe the instructions are ambiguous, incomplete or unclear.
- 17a. If more than one person constitutes the Client, then they are jointly and severally bound by these arrangements and we are entitled to act upon the instructions of any one of those persons.
- 17b. We are entitled to assume that any instruction received from your individual Client ID and password originates from You or the authorised representative to whom the Client ID and password is assigned and that such instruction is a valid instruction to access the services. We are not obliged to inquire into the validity of any such instruction received.
18. You acknowledge that we are not responsible for missed market opportunities during the time it takes us, acting reasonably, to follow our internal procedures or the procedures of share registries or product issuers, for example, processing corporate actions including but not limited to buy backs or share purchase plans, opening accounts, transferring Participant Sponsored Holdings or Issuer Sponsored Holdings or confirming your identity.
- 19a. You acknowledge that we will make all reasonable attempts to enter your instructions to buy or sell securities as quickly as possible. However, should delays be experienced:
- i. in connection with the number of participants or persons attempting to participate in the market at a point in time;
 - ii. due to verification or authorisation processes; or,
 - iii. due to delays resulting from call waiting time or adherence to internal procedures,
- we will not be liable for any claims for lost opportunity.
- 19b. You acknowledge that we will make all reasonable attempts to effect any instructions to cancel or amend orders as quickly as possible. However, should an order be filled prior to a cancellation or amendment instruction being effected, you will be obliged to accept the transaction(s) on the original terms. Whilst all reasonable attempts will be made to inform you when the order is filled prior to an amendment or cancellation instruction being effected, we are not obliged to do so.

- 19c. You acknowledge and accept that there may be delays in processing between the time an amendment or cancellation instruction is dealt with by us and the time the amendment or cancellation is effected on market. In the event an order is filled between the time it has been 'approved' by us and the time we effect the instruction on market, you will be obliged to accept the transaction on the original terms.
- 19d. If you are uncertain as to whether your order has been received you will make all reasonable attempts to verify whether the order has been received, approved and effected prior to taking any further action. You agree to issue specific cancellation or amendment instructions with respect to an existing order and not to attempt to effect such changes by placing a second or duplicate order. You will be solely responsible and liable for any duplicate instruction that you place.
- 19e. You acknowledge that we are not liable to you for any loss you incur under a share purchase plan due to a seller or buyer or their broker failing to complete a transaction in accordance with the rules or procedures of the market, the clearing facility or the settlement facility.
- 19f. If you purchase on market a holding of rights for a security that is traded separately to the security, you acknowledge that you are responsible for exercising those rights directly with the relevant share registry; we will not exercise those rights on your behalf.
- 19g. In the course of processing a sell order for a security, we may remove your holding of the security from the register before the due date for settlement under the Market Operating Rules.

- 19h. If, in our reasonable opinion, we believe there is a dispute between us about an order or instruction you have given us, for example, the number of shares you have asked us to buy, or the bid price for shares, we may take, without prior notice to you, any action which in our reasonable opinion we consider necessary to close any open position the subject of the dispute, for example, by selling shares.
- 19i. You acknowledge that, due to market conditions, we may complete your order by multiple market transactions, across multiple markets in accordance with our Best Execution Policy and you authorise us to accumulate those transactions on a single Confirmation and specify the volume weighted average price for those market transactions.
20. You agree that CommSec is authorised to transfer any security of yours held on the CHESSE sub-register to the register or registers maintained by the Issuers of those securities (i.e. transfer your holding from Participant Sponsored to Issuer Sponsored). You agree that CommSec may do so at its sole discretion. CommSec will provide you with notice before doing so or as soon as reasonably possible after doing so.

Authorities

21. When you open a CommSec account you will need to make an election whether you authorise us to provide details of your Commonwealth Direct Investment Account (CDIA) held with Commonwealth Bank through the Bulk Electronic Clearing System to share registries, together with an instruction on your behalf to deposit the dividends from your CHESSE sponsored holdings into your CDIA. Where you do not make such an election, you will need to provide your nominated account details to share registries yourself. If you hold shares in a company that does not support electronic payment of dividends, you may still receive dividend cheques sent to your registered address.

22. You agree to pay our normal costs associated with your trades, including, without limitation, brokerage and administration fees and to reimburse us for any extraneous costs, such as GST, for share transactions made on your behalf. Full details of our current fees and the schedules of our standard fees and charges may be obtained by visiting our website at commsec.com.au or by calling us on 13 15 19.
23. You authorise us to appropriate any credits, payments and other receipts from you or your account in such manner and order as we think fit against any amounts due or owing by you to us or otherwise.
24. You acknowledge that we may pay money that we have received for you into a trust account, for example, if we cannot effect payment into your nominated bank account, and that we retain any interest earned on such money.

Acceptable settlement methods

25. We accept payment for settlement by direct debit from your nominated settlement account, BPay or from your margin lending facility. We do not accept cheques as a method of payment for settlement purposes.

Failure to settle

26. If by the settlement date shown on any Confirmation we have not received the relevant payment due, you agree to pay us:
- interest on the amount outstanding from time to time at the Commonwealth Bank Overdraft Index Rate plus 3%, calculated daily; and
 - a late settlement fee determined by us from time to time to cover our reasonable costs and expenses arising from your failure to settle by the due date together with any applicable GST.
27. If by the settlement date shown on any Confirmation you have not delivered to us the relevant certificates or security holder information, you agree to pay us:

- any fail fees levied by a Market Operator or ASX Clear; and
 - a late settlement fee determined by us from time to time to cover our reasonable costs and expenses arising from your failure to settle by the due date together with any applicable GST.
28. We may suspend your account at any time and without notice to you if you fail to settle on time for orders we have executed for you.
29. If, after a demand, you have not delivered to us the relevant certificates or security holder information, or payment due, then:
- a. you direct us to buy back or sell on your behalf any of the securities that are the subject of the contract;
 - b. you authorise us to sell any other securities outstanding on your account, or any securities in our control or possession (except, in each case, shares in Commonwealth Bank, unless the shares are subject of a trade that has failed to settle.); and
 - c. you agree to indemnify us against all costs, expenses and losses incurred, including brokerage, GST, fail fees levied by a Market Operator or ASX Clear and bank fees, resulting from your failure to settle by the due date.

Foreign Ownership Restricted Security

A Foreign Ownership Restricted Security is a security listed as a "FOR Financial Product" in Schedule 1 to the ASX Settlement Operating Rules. Foreign Ownership Restricted Securities have conditions, specified by the Issuer, in relation to whether foreign investors are permitted to hold the issuing company's securities or place limits on the level of foreign ownership permitted in the company. Each Issuer can specify its own definitions of a foreign investor, and those designated as a foreign investor are identified by their residency status being set as either FOREIGN or DOMESTIC on their CHESSE Holder record (HIN) (Residency Indicator). Residency Indicators are stated on HIN documentation provided by CHESSE.

You acknowledge:

30. That should you:

- a. acquire a holding in a Foreign Ownership Restricted Security, or
- b. hold a Foreign Ownership Restricted Security and update your address to an address in a foreign country or from an address in a foreign country to an Australian address,

CommSec will assess, on a best endeavours basis, whether your Residency Indicator is appropriate for the Foreign Ownership Restricted Security. When assessing the appropriateness of your Residency Indicator, CommSec will not always have access to all the necessary and relevant information, relating to your personal circumstances, to make a determination based on the Issuer's definition of foreign residency.

31. If it is determined by CommSec that a Residency Indicator may not be appropriate, CommSec will attempt to contact you to confirm whether our assessment is correct, and to advise you what options are available for you to maintain an appropriate Residency Indicator, prior to taking any action that CommSec deems appropriate. There are a number of actions that may be required to ensure an accurate Residency Indicator for a Foreign Ownership Restricted Security. These include:

- a. updating the Residency Indicator on your HIN; or
- b. where updating the Residency Indicator is not possible, because you hold other Foreign Ownership Restricted Securities with relevantly different Issuer criteria, transfer the impacted Foreign Ownership Restricted security to:

- i. an alternative account that has a HIN with the correct Residency Indicator if applicable, or
- ii. an alternative account and HIN with the appropriate Residency Indicator that Commsec establishes for you; or

(c) transfer the impacted Foreign Ownership Restricted Security from your Participant Sponsored Holding to an Issuer Sponsored Holding.

32. CommSec will perform actions relating to amending your Residency Indicator based on your direction. In the event that:

- a. we are unable to contact you; or
- b. you are unable to or decline to provide direction to our satisfaction; or
- c. you provide a direction which conflicts with the personal information you have provided to us,

CommSec may transfer your Foreign Ownership Restricted Security from Participant Sponsored to Issuer Sponsored. CommSec will provide you with notice before doing so or as soon as reasonably possible after doing so.

33. If at any time you believe your Residency Indicator in respect of a Foreign Ownership Restricted Security is incorrect, you must contact us to request an update to your Residency Indicator.

PART 4. TRADING RULES

1. We accept orders from registered clients on the CommSec Platforms. Orders must comply with these Trading Rules.
2. When an order is received that does not comply with these Trading Rules, we will endeavour to contact you. However, you are ultimately responsible for revising your order. We will not be held responsible for any loss that may arise when an order is not accepted.
3. These Trading Rules apply to all dealings between you as a client and us. We reserve the right to vary these Trading Rules at any time. Any such variation shall apply to any dealing by you after it takes effect and your continued use of a CommSec Platform is an acceptance of the variation.
4. Orders will be executed in accordance with our Best Execution Policy. We may from time to time amend our Best Execution Policy and make such amendments available on our website, or otherwise notify you of the amended Best Execution Policy.
5. You should be aware that different Trading Rules may apply to the different CommSec Platforms and it is important that you understand the different Trading Rules when trading on the different CommSec Platforms. In addition, you need to understand that not all features or order types are available on all CommSec Platforms and we will notify you of this fact either in these Trading Rules or on the specific CommSec Platform itself.

Limit Orders

6. A limit order is an order to buy or sell specified units of a security at a specified price or better.
7. A limit order will not be accepted, without any advice to you, if we consider the limit price to be too far away from the prevailing market price of that stock.
8. Limit orders can be amended or cancelled provided the order has not already been executed.
9. It will be your responsibility to manage any unfilled portions of your order.

Market Orders

10. An 'At Market' order is an order to buy or sell specified units of a security at the current market price at the time the order is given.
11. We will use best endeavours when executing your 'At Market' order but cannot guarantee precise execution as to the price specified by guidance provided by us at order entry.
12. We will place your 'At Market' order instruction for execution in accordance with our Best Execution Policy only when:
 - a. trading for the particular stock is in continuous match mode;
 - b. trading for the particular security is not suspended or halted; and
 - c. placing the order will not contravene our obligation to maintain an 'orderly market'.
13. 'At Market' orders cannot be accepted on the CommSec Platforms:
 - outside of market hours; or
 - when trading in a particular stock is halted/suspended.
14. 'At Market' orders cannot be amended or cancelled online during market hours.
15. 'At Market' orders can be rejected at our discretion.

Buy Orders

16. Buy orders can be placed for all ASX and Chi-X listed securities.
17. In some circumstances, a deposit may be required before your order is sent to market.
18. Unless otherwise advised, we provide each account with a limit. Part of this limit can be used for non-leading stocks.

19. If your order exceeds the limit, then a deposit may be required before your order is sent to market. The notional deposit amount is calculated by reference to:

- whether you are buying a leading or non-leading stock;
- the market value of the order; and
- other open or unsettled buy orders.

20. Where a deposit is required, we will automatically offset the notional deposit amount with the market value of your Participant Sponsored Holdings sponsored by us and any cleared funds held in your CDIA or Accelerator Cash Account. In many cases, no actual deposit will be needed and your order will be automatically sent to market.

Sell Orders

21. We do not accept short selling orders.

22. If selling Issuer-sponsored stock, it is your responsibility to ensure that the Shareholder Reference Number (SRN) of the holding is correct and that there are sufficient units available for settling the trade.

23. Sell orders may not be accepted if:

- there are insufficient units available for settlement in your Participant Sponsored Holdings sponsored by us; or
- there are insufficient units available for settlement in an Issuer-sponsored holding quoted by you; or
- an invalid SRN for Issuer-sponsored stock is supplied; or
- more than one valid SRN for Issuer-sponsored stock is supplied; or
- stock is Participant Sponsored by a broker other than us.

Amending Orders

24. If you wish to amend the price of an order to a new price that is further away from the prevailing market price, the change in the total value must be at least $20.

Smaller limit price amendments will only be accepted if the new price is closer to the prevailing market price for the stock.

Orders not accepted online

25. Orders involving any of the following do not qualify for our Internet brokerage rates and must be placed over the telephone:
- limit price amendments away from the prevailing market price where the change in total value is less than $20; or
 - registration details which are different from your CommSec account details; or
 - payment in the name of a person or entity other than the account holder; or
 - payment instructions which are different from the standing instructions for your CommSec account; or
 - multiple SRNs.

General

26. Except as provided for in Clause 16 of Part 3 – General Conditions of Trade, a limit order if not cancelled or executed earlier is valid for:

- Exchange Traded International Securities – day only orders, for that business day only;
- Exchange Traded Commodities – day only orders, for that business day only;
- warrants and day only orders – for that business day only;
- orders involving settlement through a margin lender, if accepted – a further five (5) business days (order day +5) after the date your order is placed in the market;
- market orders - 20 business days (order day +20) after the date your order is placed in the market;
- Exchange Traded Funds – 20 business days (order day +20) after the date your order is placed in the market; or
- share limit orders – 20 business days (order day +20) after the date your order is placed in the market.

27. Usually, an order received after market closing time is treated as an order received on the next Trading Day.
28. In the event of a change in the basis of quotation of a stock (e.g. the stock going ex-dividend), your outstanding order will be purged by the Market Operator prior to the expiry date.
29. We reserve the right to take such steps as we consider necessary to check the bona fides of any client, order or instruction before acting on that order or instruction.

PART 5. CONDITIONAL ORDER INSTRUCTION

1. We accept, administer and implement a Conditional Order Instruction, or a variation or cancellation of a Conditional Order Instruction, in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in this Part 5 – Conditional Order Instruction (Conditional Order Instruction Terms and Conditions).
2. Conditional Orders are not available on all CommSec Platforms through which you can trade.

Definitions

3. “Conditional Order Instruction” means an instruction you give to us on a CommSec Platform to place an order for a Security on the market:
 - a. when the Trigger occurs; and
 - b. at market price or at a price in accordance with the Limit.

“Limit” means the minimum price at which we are instructed to sell, or the maximum price at which we are instructed to purchase, the Security under your Conditional Order Instruction.

“Security” means a security or securities for which you have placed a Conditional Order Instruction.

“Trigger” means criteria that are acceptable to us, which you nominate for your Conditional Order Instruction, which, when satisfied, causes us to place an order for the Security on the available markets. A Trigger may not consider all markets.

Placing a Conditional Order Instruction

4. We are not obliged to accept a Conditional Order Instruction, for example, if there is market volatility, the security is too thinly traded, or the price for the Limit is too far from the price at which the security is currently traded.
5. We do not accept “at market” as a price for the Limit.

6. We accept a Trigger only if it relates specifically to the same Security for which the Conditional Order Instruction is being placed. We do not accept the price of another stock as a Trigger or a Limit.
7. You must not place a Conditional Order Instruction for the purposes of manipulating or influencing the price of a Security, market rigging, insider trading, disruption of the market, threatening the integrity of the market, misleading or deceptive conduct concerning dealings in the security, or where you do not have proper authority to place a Conditional Order Instruction.
8. The range between the price in the Trigger and the price in the Limit must be acceptable to us if the Conditional Order Instruction has a Limit.
9. We accept a selling Conditional Order Instruction only for a Participant Sponsored Holding that is sponsored by us. You must nominate the Participant Sponsored Holding to which the Conditional Order Instruction applies. We apply the Conditional Order Instruction only to that holding.
10. A Conditional Order Instruction is not valid until we have told you that we have accepted it.

Maintaining your Conditional Order Instruction

11. You must ensure that you have sufficient securities and funds, either in your bank account, or your margin lending facility, to satisfy an order.
12. We apply the Conditional Order Instruction for a holding only to securities which are in that holding. We do not satisfy an order by taking securities from another holding.
13. A Conditional Order Instruction is valid for 12 months unless it is varied or cancelled or as otherwise permitted on a CommSec Platform.
14. A Conditional Order Instruction remains valid in the event of a trading halt, unless the Market Operator purges orders for the Security from the market.

Variation or cancellation of a Conditional Order Instruction

15. Conditional Order Instructions are taken on a 'best endeavours' basis. In the event of system failure, we may cancel Conditional Order Instructions.
16. We may cancel a Conditional Order Instruction if orders for the Security are purged from the market by the Market Operator, for example:
 - a. the Security going ex-dividend;
 - b. the Security being subject to a reconstruction of capital such as a share split or consolidation; or
 - c. a rights issue.
17. You may vary or cancel a Conditional Order Instruction. When you do, we may accept or reject it, and in doing so, we are entitled to rely on these Conditional Order Instruction Terms and Conditions as if the variation or cancellation is a new Conditional Order Instruction.
18. We reserve the right to charge a fee for a cancellation or variation of a Conditional Order Instruction.
19. You must apply to us to reinstate a Conditional Order Instruction after it has been cancelled. When you apply, we will apply our rules and policies for accepting a new or varied Conditional Order Instruction. We may charge a fee for the reinstatement.

Implementing a Conditional Order Instruction

20. A Conditional Order Instruction is triggered when the Trigger for the Security occurs.
21. When the Conditional Order Instruction is triggered, we place an order for the Security on the market:
 - a. at a price not below the Limit, in the case of a sale order, and
 - b. at a price not greater than the Limit in the case of a purchase order.

22. When the Conditional Order Instruction without a Limit is triggered we place a market order for the Security.
 23. If the order is triggered by events as a result of the closing price auction, the order may be placed on the market the following day, during the pre-open.
 24. A Conditional Order Instruction will not be triggered by notional values or indicative prices.
 25. We place a Conditional Order Instruction according to the time precedence of the Conditional Order Instruction, but we cannot guarantee the order in which it is placed onto the market.
 26. In the event of system failure or malfunction, we may not have placed orders in accordance with the Conditional Order Instruction. Upon resumption from an outage, the system will not act on events that occurred during the system failure or malfunction.
 27. The placement of an order on the market does not guarantee that the order will be filled.
 28. The order remains on the market in accordance with our Trading Rules.
 29. We use our best endeavours to place an order on the market following a Conditional Order Instruction being triggered. However, we reserve the right to review an order that results from a triggered Conditional Order Instruction and to refuse to place that order on the market, for example, if we consider that placing the order would not be consistent with a fair and orderly market. Also, it might not be possible for us to place an order on the market for example:
 - a. where the basis for quotation for the Security has changed and you have not varied your Conditional Order Instruction;
 - b. where the Security has been subject to a trading halt and you have not varied your Conditional Order Instruction;
 - c. if we believe that your instructions are ambiguous, incomplete or unclear;
 - d. where we believe that the instruction contravenes these Conditional Order Instruction Terms and Conditions, the General Conditions of Trade, the Trading Rules or the General Terms and Conditions; or
 - e. where acting on the order is inconsistent with our legal obligations in respect of the maintenance of an orderly market.
- General
30. You accept these Conditional Order Instruction Terms and Conditions, or any variation of them, the first time you place a Conditional Order Instruction after receiving these Conditional Order Instruction Terms and Conditions, or a notice of variation of these Conditional Order Instruction Terms and Conditions, in accordance with clause 11 of Part 2 – General Terms and Conditions.
 31. Your obligations to us under these Conditional Order Instruction Terms and Conditions are in addition to your obligations to us under:
 - a. our General Conditions of Trade;
 - b. the rules of CHESSE sponsorship;
 - c. our Trading Rules; and
 - d. our General Terms and Conditions.
 32. An order that is placed pursuant to a Conditional Order Instruction is subject to:
 - a. these Conditional Order Instruction Terms and Conditions;
 - b. our General Conditions of Trade;
 - c. the rules of CHESSE sponsorship;
 - d. our Trading Rules; and
 - e. our General Terms and Conditions.
 33. You agree to use Conditional Order Instructions only in connection with your personal investment activities, and not use Conditional Order Instructions in connection with any business activities or to hold or monitor security trading for another person.
 34. In addition to any other indemnities contained in these Terms and Conditions, you indemnify us for any liability for loss or damage (including consequential loss, loss of profit and economic loss) that we incur as a result of your use of the Conditional Order Instruction in breach of these Conditional Order Instruction Terms and Conditions, or in a manner, or for a purpose, not reasonably contemplated by us.

35. If you are not a consumer as defined in consumer protection laws, our liability for loss or damage is limited to resupplying the service to you or paying the costs of having the service resupplied to you and we will not be liable for loss (including consequential loss, loss of profit and economic loss) that you incur or suffer as a result of:
 - a. delays in executing orders following a triggered Conditional Order Instruction;
 - b. system failure; or
 - c. a triggered Conditional Order Instruction not being executed upon submission to the market.
36. If you are a consumer as defined in consumer protection laws, then to the extent permitted by those laws, our liability is limited to resupplying the service to you or paying the costs of having the service resupplied to you and we will not be liable for loss or damage (including consequential loss, loss of profit and economic loss) that you incur or suffer as a result of:
 - a. delays in executing orders following a triggered Conditional Order Instruction;
 - b. system failure; or
 - c. a triggered Conditional Order Instruction not being executed upon submission to the market.
37. If there is more than one account holder, or there is more than one owner of a holding, you represent to us that all account holders and owners of the holding have read and that they accept:
 - a. these Conditional Order Instruction Terms and Conditions; and

b. any Risk Disclosure Statement for the particular Conditional Order Instruction facility, and that each account holder and owner of the holding agrees to act in accordance with these Conditional Order Instruction Terms and Conditions.

Conditional Trading Risk Disclosure Statement

38. This Risk Disclosure Statement does not disclose all the risks associated with the use of a Conditional Order Instruction. It should not be relied upon as a complete explanation of the risks involved with using a Conditional Order Instruction. If you need further explanation of the risks associated with the use of a Conditional Order Instruction, you should seek appropriate professional advice.
39. While the intention of a Conditional Order Instruction is to limit losses to a certain amount, an Instruction may not always be effective because market conditions may make it impossible to execute a particular instruction.
40. Market conditions such as illiquidity may make it difficult or impossible for CommSec to find sufficient counterparty volume to purchase/sell securities between the conditional Trigger price and the Limit price.
41. Action by a Market Operator such as the suspension of trading in certain securities may make it difficult or impossible to effect transactions so as to limit losses.
42. A Conditional Order Instruction does not make any provision for temporary falls or rises in security prices. Security prices may return to, exceed or fall short of the Trigger price at which CommSec was instructed to buy or sell, within a short period of time.
43. It may not be possible for CommSec to carry out your instruction, if to do so would, in the opinion of CommSec or the regulatory authorities, result in illegal conduct such as market manipulation.

Trailing Buy and Trailing Sell Conditional Order Instruction

44. Trailing Buy and Trailing Sell conditional orders by nature are prone to share price movements. When using these conditional orders it is important to note that your trail start price may differ significantly from where your trail end condition is met. Further, as the fired conditional order is a market order, in a rapid moving market your conditional order may be executed at a significantly less favourable price than where your trigger condition is met.

Falling Sell Conditional Order Instruction

45. A Falling Sell Conditional Order Instruction uses the last traded price on the market to determine whether the Trigger price condition has been met.
46. A triggered Falling Sell Conditional Order Instruction does not guarantee that your sale order will be filled. The market price might fall or rise rapidly through the Trigger price and the Limit price.
47. There may not be a buyer or seller at your Limit price.
48. By using Conditional Order Instructions you acknowledge that:
- CommSec does not provide any guarantee as to the effectiveness of a Conditional Order Instruction in limiting your losses or ensuring gains;
 - you accept without limitation all risks associated with the use of a Conditional Order Instruction;
 - you have read and accept the Conditional Order Instruction Terms and Conditions and the Conditional Trading Risk Disclosure Statement; and
 - CommSec recommends you seek appropriate professional advice before using a Conditional Order Instruction.

PART 6. DIRECT DEBIT/CREDIT REQUEST SERVICE AGREEMENT

Debit arrangements

1. We will advise you, in writing or electronically, in the form of a Confirmation Contract Note, the drawing details that include the settlement amount due and the settlement date.
2. Where the settlement date falls on a non-business day, we will draw the amount on the following business day.
3. Where applicable, we will advise you, in writing or electronically, in the form of a tax invoice, the drawing details that include the tax payable for any amount due and the payment date for any domestic or foreign tax obligation.
4. We may charge a dishonour fee if any debit from your nominated account is returned as unpaid by your financial institution. We will treat the payment as never having been made.
5. We will keep your information about your nominated account at the financial institution private and confidential unless this information is required by us to investigate a claim made on it relating to an alleged incorrect or wrongful debt, or as otherwise required by law.
6. In the event of a debit returned unpaid we may attempt a redraw on your nominated account.
7. We will advise you 14 days in advance of any changes to the Direct Debit/Direct Credit arrangements.
8. If you provide an incorrect bank account number, you may incur a fee if we have processed a transaction to that account.
9. If you are uncertain as to when the debit/credit will be processed to your account, you should enquire with your nominated financial institution.

Your rights

10. You may terminate the Direct Debit/Direct Credit arrangement of your trades with us, however this termination must be in writing.
11. Where you consider the debit/credit is incorrect in either the due date or amount or both, you should raise the matter with CommSec on 13 15 19 between 8am and 7pm (Sydney time), Monday to Friday.
12. Please contact CommSec on 13 15 19 between 8am and 7pm (Sydney time), Monday to Friday for all matters relating to the Direct Debit/Direct Credit arrangement, including to request a deferment or stopping of debits/credits, questions regarding amounts or dates of debits/credits or altering or stopping the arrangement. You can also contact your financial institution to request a stop or cancellation of the arrangement or to dispute a debit to your nominated account. We have a dispute resolution process available if you have a complaint which we do not resolve. Further information on that process is set out in our Financial Services Guide, which is available online at commsec.com.au or by calling CommSec on 13 15 19.
 - to ensure sufficient cleared funds are available in the nominated account to meet the debit on the due settlement date of your transactions executed by CommSec;

 - by your nominated financial institution; or
 - for any other reason.

Your responsibilities

13. It is your responsibility:
 - to check with the financial institution where your account is held before completing the Direct Debit/Credit Request (DDR) as Direct Debiting/Crediting through the Bulk Electronic Clearing System (BECS) is not allowed on a full range of accounts;
 - to complete your account details, including Bank State Branch (BSB) number, directly off a recent account statement from your financial institution and to contact your nominated financial institution prior to completing the DDR if you are uncertain of the account details;

PART 7. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CHESS SPONSORSHIP

Explanation of effect of CHESS Sponsorship

The Terms and Conditions of CHESS Sponsorship below constitute a contract that you (the Client) enter into with us (CommSec), in which you name us as your CHESS sponsor and authorise us to create a CHESS Participant Sponsored Holding in your name and to trade on it as you instruct.

Clearing House Electronic Subregister System (CHESS) is the computer system used by the Australian Securities Exchange to record shareholdings and manage the settlement of share transactions.

Being CHESS sponsored by us means you can buy and sell shares more quickly than if your shares were 'issuer sponsored', and to buy shares without providing a deposit if you have sufficient holdings. Being CHESS sponsored by us also allows you to automatically track portfolio and market values using our online Portfolio Summary tool.

You can also discuss the Terms and Conditions of CHESS Sponsorship with us. To do so, please call CommSec on 13 15 19 between 8am and 7pm (Sydney time), Monday to Friday..

1. Interpretation

- 1.1 Any term used in this Sponsorship Agreement which is defined in, or given a meaning under, the ASX Settlement Operating Rules (the Rules) has the meaning given in the Rules. (Should you require a copy of these definitions please contact CommSec).
- 1.2 In this Sponsorship Agreement, CommSec is referred to as the "Participant" and the Client is referred to as the "Participant Sponsored Holder". These terms are defined in the Rules.

2. Appointment

The Participant Sponsored Holder appoints the Participant to provide, and the Participant agrees to provide, transfer and settlement services as agent for the Participant Sponsored Holder on the terms and conditions contained in this Sponsorship Agreement.

3. Authorisations, participant rights and participant sponsored holder's rights

3.1 Authorisations

- 3.1.1 Upon delivery to the Participant of all necessary certificates, marked or unmarked transfers and other documents in relation to Financial Products to be held in Participant Sponsored Holdings:
 - a. the Participant Sponsored Holder authorises the Participant to effect any Transfers and Conversions necessary to register the Financial Products into Participant Sponsored Holdings; and
 - b. the Participant must initiate the necessary Transfers or Conversions within the time prescribed under the Rules.

3.2 Participant Rights

- 3.2.1 Where the Participant Sponsored Holder authorises the Participant to buy Financial Products, the Participant Sponsored Holder will pay for those Financial Products on or before the date agreed with the Participant for payment.
- 3.2.2 Subject to Clause 3.2.3, the Participant is not obliged to Transfer Financial Products into the Participant Sponsored Holding, where payment for those Financial Products has not been received, until payment is received.
- 3.2.3 Where a contract for the purchase of Financial Products remains unpaid, after the Participant has made a demand of the Participant Sponsored Holder to pay for the Financial Products, the Participant may sell those Financial Products that are the subject of that contract at the Participant Sponsored Holder's risk and expense and that expense will include brokerage and stamp duty.

3.2.4 Where the Participant claims that an amount lawfully owed to it has not been paid by the Participant Sponsored Holder, the Participant has the right to refuse to comply with the Participant Sponsored Holder's Withdrawal Instructions, but only to the extent necessary to retain Financial Products of the minimum value held in a Participant Sponsored Holding (where the minimum value is equal to 120% of the current market value of the amount claimed). Where the Participant exercises this right, it must inform the Participant Sponsored Holder, within a reasonable period, of the action it has taken.

3.3 Participant Sponsored Holder's Rights

3.3.1 Subject to Clauses 3.2.3 and 3.2.4, the Participant will initiate any Transfer, Conversion or other action necessary to give effect to Withdrawal Instructions within two (2) Business Days of the date of the receipt of the Withdrawal Instructions.

3.3.2 Subject to Rule 7.4, the Participant will not initiate any Transfer or Conversion into or out of the Participant Sponsored Holding without the express authority of the Participant Sponsored Holder.
